TRAVEL LIST

Ghoulish getaways

Across the country haunted houses, creepy campouts and other spooky happenings are waiting to turn your weekend away into a fright fest. Can you handle them? Check out the scare factor for each and decide if you want to take your chances. BY ELAINE GLUSAC

ESCAPE WITH YOUR LIFE PHILADELPHIA, PA

Ghost hunters flock to Al Capone's former cell in the abandoned Eastern State Penitentiary, drawn by reports of shadowy figures darting from chamber to chamber and filling rooms with palpable energy. The Gothic-style prison, which opened in 1829, goes even more gruesome in its 26th season of Terror Behind the Walls, when the prison turns into a haunted house filled with actors dressed as inmates ready to spring out from behind bars. You can either observe the madness or be a part of it by wearing a glowing necklace that alerts the staff that you can be grabbed, held back and even removed from your group and sent into hidden passageways. Gulp! From $19, starting September 16, check easternstate.org/halloween for schedule
DARE TO STAY THE NIGHT The nearby Cornerstone Bed and Breakfast, in an 1865 stone mansion, boasts its own (gentler) ghost, a girl who, guests claim, occasionally appears in the form of a floating orb. $185 per night, includes lodging, breakfast for two and daytime prison-tour tickets; cornerstonebandb.com

FAIR GAMES WAUKESHA, WI

This time of year the county fairgrounds are transformed into the Wisconsin Fear Grounds. Guests venture through the woods to a 20,000-square-foot haunted house so scary a safe phrase was created to allow terrified patrons to be escorted out. From $20, starting October 1, check wisconsinfeargrounds.com for schedule
DARE TO STAY THE NIGHT Visit on October 8 for the Night Terrors: 13 Hours of Fear sleepover. Join up to 240 brave souls camping out on the property while enjoying movie screenings, a walk through haunted woods and more. From $80 per person, includes a tent, activities and refreshments; wisconsinfeargrounds.com/camp-out
